Mr. Johnson:

On July 02, 2019, you held the Develop Your Power Memory program here at the Lockport Public Library. The audience was highly engaged with the performance and came out of the evening with some tips and tricks to try.

The stories you shared were relatable and provided good examples of the kinds of situations where memory techniques would be of use. Your demonstrations throughout the program also illustrated the ways we can work to improve our memories—and some easy traps to avoid.

As the patrons filed out after the evening, I could hear them already discussing their plans and their hopes that you would be able to come in and hold programs again.

Thank you for an informative, enjoyable program, hopefully to be repeated soon.

Sincerely,

Laurie Sandretto
